

Kreager Park

North River Rd. • 172.6 Acres

Kreager Park features an award-winning accessible playground called Taylor's Dream which includes a splash pad. This "boundless playground" has three circular pods and activity areas on changing elevations, with connecting accessible ramps. Kreager Park is surrounded by open fields and forested areas. Many kite enthusiasts find the perfect spot for a little flying on a windy day. Check out the trail in the park or for a longer hike, hop on the River-greenway and head either to New Haven or into Fort Wayne.
